

Welcome !

With its many green landscapes, peaceful villages and moving war history, the "Westhoek" (Western Corner) has for years been the region, par excellence for any vacationer or hedonist. Being a small community, Langemark-Poelkapelle (Langemarck-Poelcapelle) can count on all the following trumps: peaceful walks or hikes along the many paths through the fields and leading to the church, refreshing cycling trips on the cycle route network, pleasant pub terraces, time of reflection at the military cemeteries, etc.
